THE OFFENSIVE GROWS

Red Loyalists Find Their Backs Almost Unshielded
From Insurgents

By Thomas A. Loayza

MADRID, Aug. 6.—Increased by an offensive of growing proportions from the south, while concentrating on thrusting back the determined rebel drive in the Guadarrama range, on the north, red loyalists today found their backs almost unshielded from the insurgents.

In a desperate move to impede the importation of Moorish invaders and foreign legions from Morocco, loyalists scuttled a 1,500 ton ship in the Guadarrama river, cutting off the inland port of Seville, according to Voz. While the three day engagement in the Guadarrama mountain passes remained indecisive, claims of victory again poured forth from both sides today.

Three hundred loyalist troops were killed in the Somo Sierra pass in a protracted skirmish won by the rebels, it was asserted at General Emilio Mola's headquarters at Burgos. On the west flank of the Guadarrama sector, Madrid asserted, however, the rebels were defeated at Navalperal, with more than one hundred insurgents slain and many more wounded. Three other victories were claimed by loyalists farther north. A loyal column has come within ten miles of Almazara, the rebel citadel and "Elion is surrounded by government troops."

A rebel "Black Legion" that sallied forth from Saragossa with 1800 men, clashed with three columns of loyalists and red militia. Twelve miles out of Sagasta rebels were defeated in a day long battle, it was confirmed in Madrid. Fighting continued on the Bay of Biscay shores, centering at Oviado and San Sebastian.

Dynamic Drama Shown In
"White Angel" at Grand

What is heralded as one of the outstanding productions of the screen, "The White Angel," a First National picture portraying the life story of the immortal nurse, Florence Nightingale, opens at the Grand Theatre tonight, with Kay Francis in the stellar role. The picture paints in fiery drama the fight of Florence Nightingale, a wealthy English society girl, to remedy conditions in army field hospitals and the neglect of dying soldiers. All the tragedy and pathos of the battlefield is pictured in the film, as well as the beauty of the life of sacrifices of Florence Nightingale and her specially picked nurses.

The film is set in the middle of the last century during the Crimean war, and the most thrilling scenes take place at the base hospital at Scutari, a small Turkish town on the north shore of the Bosphorus, and at Balaklava, where the immortal six hundred of the Light Brigade rode "into the jaws of death."

EIGHT MEET DEATH
IN AIRLINER CRASHTragedy Occurs Four Miles
North of St. Louis, Mo.

BEGIN THORO' PROBE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 6.—(INS)—Dawn today revealed a grisly sight on the field four miles north of here where eight persons crashed to their deaths in a Chicago and Southern airliner late last night.

County and airline officials were early on the scene and at once opened a double barreled investigation into the tragedy which occurred about 10.05 p. m. Just five minutes after the plane left the Lambert municipal field here for Chicago.

The two pilots and six passengers in the plane were apparently killed instantly and with no survivors, authorities had a difficult time to determine what might have caused the crash. Nearly six hours afterward, details were still meager.

Carleton Putnam, president of the company, announced the victims as follows:

Carl Pier, pilot, Chicago.

Russell Mossman, co-pilot, New Orleans.

A. R. Holt, 24 Milk street, Boston, Mass.

George Grishaber, Oak Park, Ill.

D. R. McDavitt, Chicago.

C. B. Wright, Ransdale, Ill.

W. S. Bartlett, Chicago.

Vernon Omlie, Memphis, Tenn.

The ill fated ship was a Lockheed-Electra, 10 passenger plane, which took off with only six of the passenger seats occupied.

The ship had been fully tested and okayed before its departure in compliance with rules, according to Mr. Putnam. There was no hint of trouble from the pilot before the disaster occurred. Mr. Putnam said he had been informed by representatives at the airport. The first intimation that something had happened came with the failure of the pilot to answer his regular radio call. Some minutes were spent in trying to contact the silent plane, but still a crash was not considered until the ship became overdue at certain along the line. It was then felt certain that it must be down some place and a search was instituted.

The completely wrecked plane with bodies of its eight victims was found soon after in the vacant field.

DESTRUCTIVE INFLATION

[Commercial Bulletin, July 25, 1936]

The dictionary, as a standard authority, is of value in determining the exact meaning of words that we hear or read every day. In connection with financial policies of our government the word "inflation" is often used. The Century Dictionary defines inflationist as "specifically in the United States, one who favors increased issues of paper money." Webster's Dictionary defines the Inflationist Period as "The time of suspension of specie payments, from 1862 to 1879." Inflation is defined as "undue expansion or increase as in paper money, currency, prices, etc."

If an inflationist period is a time when specie payments are suspended by the government, it is obvious that we are in the midst of such a period now. The government will not on demand pay gold in exchange for greenbacks; the gold value of the dollar has been debased by law; it has been enacted that it is now a crime for a citizen to hold gold coins of the United States.

We have travelled quite a distance along the road of inflation, and it remains to be seen whether or not our wandering from sound financial practice can be stopped in time to escape catastrophe.

The inflationists, at various times in the history of our country, have been those who advocated an increased issue of paper or silver money by our government. With unsound ideas of currency and banking, and perhaps ignorant of the experience of our own and other nations in issuing irredeemable paper money, politicians have maintained that in time of business depression prosperity for the nation could be gained by the issue of great quantities of paper money by the government.

In France, after the revolution the assignats, issued as money to pay government debts, decreased in value until they became worthless. After our own revolution the unsecured paper money became so depreciated that the saying "not worth a continental" became popular to designate something of little or no value, as the paper notes were called continentals.

Since the World War we have seen the German experiment of inflation of paper money extended until the money became absolutely worthless. Investments in government or corporation bonds held by insurance companies, charitable or educational institutions practically disappeared, and it is estimated that many of them saved but 7 per cent of the former value of their invested funds. Russia had a similar experience with printing press money, and in France it became necessary to reduce the gold value of the franc to less than a fifth of its former value. A reduction of about 80 per cent of the value of investments of French people in bonds of their country was thus effected.

It is easy to discern the disastrous results of inflation in other countries and at other times, but not many men appear to recognize the fact that we are in the midst of inflation now, and the danger of disaster increases as time passes. Month after month the government deficit increases, and the amount of paper money increases correspondingly, as the banks issue

ANNUAL BUCCOU SHOW
TO BE GIVEN WEDNESDAYFree Production To Be Given
To the Public by Boy Scouts

BEST STUNTS OF YEAR

Scout Executive, William F. Livermore, announces that the annual Buccou Camps show will be at Buccou Camps, the Bucks County Boy Scout Camp, Wednesday, August 12th, 8.30 p. m. (d. s. t.) The show is a free production to the public. Last year, over 600 people drove to Buccou to enjoy the evening program.

The best stunts of the weekly camp shows are asked back to repeat their stunt, and each of the troops in camp during the sixth week of the 1936 season put on "their best." Staff leaders who have presented unusual novelties on the different Monday evenings when the Buccou volunteer leaders give a show for the campers will be asked back to take their place on the program. The stunts are of every description, and will give a fascinating, and enjoyable two hours of entertainment.

Two years ago, a site was selected in a beautiful dell at Buccou for the giving of the Wednesday shows. It is one of the most romantic spots with a perfectly grown cedar in the center, and the dense woods surrounding. Riegelsville troop made the trail to the dell that has been given the name of Robin Hood Glen. One feels the spirit of the Great Benefactor of the Poor and his merry men as one goes down the trail to the Glen. Brilliantly colored lanterns will lead the show visitors to the enchanting spot.

Travellers to Buccou are advised to take route 202 from the middle and upper areas of the Council, and route 30 from the lower end. Those on 202 leave it on the Flemington by-pass, and take route 30. Route 30 is left about five miles from Flemington where a road sign directs the traveller to Stanton Station. Camp signs are followed for approximately two miles to Buccou.

PET CROW LIKES TO
HAVE HEAD SCRATCHED'Johnnie' Lives 'Life of Riley'
With Dozen Meals and
Two Baths a Day

PECKS AT CATS, DOGS

A dozen meals and two baths a day!

Such is life for "Johnnie" Crow, who makes his home in the rear of the properties of Mrs. B. Kontoff, 1604 Farragut avenue, and her next-door neighbor, Thomas Rosakis.

And meat if you please for each and every one of the 12 or more meals that are demanded daily by the young crow. Meat, whether raw or cooked, but nothing else is eaten by "Johnnie." He refuses vegetables, bread, cake, candy, cheese, and any other forms of food. But the meat is never wasted. If there is too much for one "meal" this member of the feathered tribe proceeds to hunt a good hiding place for it. Later he retrieves it and proceeds to enjoy himself.

When "Johnnie's" life started about three months ago, he was kept in a cage at the Rosakis property. Later, when he was better able to care for himself, he was permitted to roam about the lawn and rear lot. With one wing clipped, he could not wander far, but still was enabled to fly about his play-space with ease. Today there is hardly a happier crow alive, for "Johnnie" is certain of his meals, no matter how great the depression might be for the crow clan, and he is sure of his two baths a day, no matter how many heat waves and droughts might come.

At night-times the pet crow sleeps on one of the convenient railings at the Rosakis place, or possibly on the Kontoff's rear fence. If storms occur he always has his cage to enter, but he seldom resorts to this, preferring the open.

And like the famed brook he babbles and chatters the live-long day, talking to his two closest friends, Mrs. Kontoff or "Tommy" Rosakis. It seems at times as if he is endeavoring to make them understand that he appreciates the many favors they do him. And when one of his "pals" scratches his head he chatters from sheer joy, and asks for more.

If cats or dogs should try to molest, "Johnnie" doesn't have to take more than a step toward them and give one good peck. Then he is free from annoyance. The Kontoff's Pekingese dog sometimes barks and barks at the crow, then gives up in disgust and walks away.

Occasionally a knife has been given to the crow, and "Johnnie," with the prize in his bill, proceeds to find a hiding place for it in the grass.

Two Killed As Bus Skids

Huntington, Aug. 6.—Two bodies lay unidentified in a local morgue, and 13 other persons were receiving hospital treatment here today, following the crash of a Greyhound bus that skidded and overturned on a slippery road at Yellow Springs, near the Blair-Huntington county line.

Of those injured when the eastbound bus turned sideways and rolled over, one passenger, Mrs. Martha Gray, 31, of Washington, Pa., was reported in a "serious condition" at the J. C. Blair Memorial Hospital.

Almost instantly killed in the crash were a man, about 45 and a woman, believed about 32 years old, according to Carl Brown, the undertaker, to whose establishment the bodies were removed. Both Brown and state highway patrolmen said they had been unable to identify the two victims who were crushed beneath the heavy wheels.

An official of the Greyhound Bus Lines, Brown said, was enroute here from Harrisburg, to aid in the identification efforts. Neither bore any identification papers or articles, he said.

According to accounts given at the hospital by the injured, the bus had started down the hill in low gear when the driver decided to shift into second gear. As he attempted to do so, the gears slipped, and the bus, picking up speed, sped out of control. With its cargo of panic stricken passengers, the heavy motor coach careened sideways to the bottom of the slope, where it overturned. Its occupants were trapped by a litter of luggage and splintered glass until aid arrived.

Archie Williams, also of the University of California, won the seventh heat in 47.8; while Jimmy La Dalle, of Los Angeles, won the fifth heat in 49.1.

LISTS THREE FACTORS
FOR LIGHT WHEAT CROPCauses Given: Dry Weather
During Spring, Saw Fly,
And The Smut

SUGGESTIONS ARE GIVEN

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 6.—Three factors are listed by County Agent William F. Greenawalt as the main causes for the light wheat crop this year: dry weather during the Spring, the saw fly, and smut.

The wheat yield in Bucks county this year averaged about 220 bushels to the acre, and this is between five and ten bushels below the average for last season.

The infestation of the wheat by the saw fly this Spring cut heavily into the total yield. The fly, which is a comparatively new pest in this section of the country, cuts the stalks off several inches from the ground. As yet there has been little of value found to combat the saw fly.

The smut and dry weather in the Spring also had serious effects on the crop. The dry weather has been marked as the cause of the short straw this year.

Various methods were employed by Bucks county farmers in harvesting the grain. Some used the combine which cuts and threshes at the same time. Others cut it and allowed it to stand to dry and then took it into the barn. Still others cut the grain and then let it stand to be threshed later in the season.

Much of the grain was threshed immediately this year to better combat the grain moth which becomes very destructive if the wheat is allowed to stand in the stack or in the mow.

After the grain has been placed in the bins, however, the moth can be treated with comparative ease, according to Mr. Greenawalt. In this case one pound of carbon bisulphide should be used to every 100 pounds of grain. The bins or granary should be tightly closed after the chemical has been placed in a shallow container on top of the grain. Within 24 hours the adult moth, the larvae and the eggs will be killed as the fumes pass off from the chemical. After the grain has been given this treatment the bins and granaries should be well ventilated.

Little information is as yet available concerning the oats yield in this section, but it is said that the short straw is the result of the drought in the Spring.

AVIATORS AND PEACE

Traveling in Europe this summer, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh was impressed by the dangers of another European war, and his knowledge of aviation enabled him to foresee the consequences if it comes. Air fleets would "turn defense into attack." Civilian populations could not rely for their safety on armies and forts. Homes, libraries, museums, schools, hospitals—all public institutions would be bare to aerial bombardments.

Lindbergh's present service lies in his having bluntly voiced the truth, in a way assured of international attention, while a guest of Nazi aviation officials at Berlin.

There should be effects when the world's most celebrated aviator with plain frankness depicts the frightfulness of the threat before the military fliers of the newly militarized German government, appealing to them to co-operate to prevent the catastrophe.

"Because intelligence must be combined with aviation," he has hope. . . . "It requires more intelligence to operate an airplane than to dig trenches and shoot rifles." . . . "The education required in aviation must also teach the value of civilized institutions. Power bound to knowledge is less dangerous than that which is barbaric."

The intelligence of all the world responds with enthusiastic approval to the appeal for the exercise of the intelligence required among aviators for the prevention of war. A cable official German comment reads: "Colonel Lindbergh's philosophical address was one of the greatest short speeches ever written." The good reception in Germany will be echoed by the masses in all countries who suffer in them but can take little part when crises between governments may start wars.

Colonel Lindbergh continues to make good use of high position in the world of aviation, both for the advancement of his science and for the service of the general public interest.

VALUABLE LESSONS

Mayor La Guardia, of New York City, translated a good theory into practice the other day when he gave 16 high school students an opportunity to lay a foundation for careers in civil service. The young people, chosen from various high schools in the city, will have jobs in city offices during the summer to learn the practical side of city government. Each will receive an honorarium of $50 a month during July and August.

In many conferences devoted to promoting civic ideals, methods of raising standards of civil service have been discussed academically. Frequently the proposal has been made that young people should be selected from schools and colleges, encouraged to specialize in courses preparing for public service, and insured employment on completion of their preparation.

Mayor La Guardia evidently takes this theorizing seriously. His experiment should be valuable to those responsible for government in other cities.

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills at your druggist.

HEAVY TRAFFIC

With week-end travel in full swing it is wise to think of and obey traffic rules while driving your car.

Why ruin your days of glorious fun by taking a chance while on the road? Remember — accidents don't happen — they are caused!

A beautiful stretch of straight road ahead is a temptation, we'll admit, to push down on the accelerator and sail serenely along. But it's not the road that is tempting you but DEATH!!! More people have died from automobile accidents than were killed in the great World War!

Just in case something should happen to you wouldn't it be better if your life had been insured? With your family well protected you can travel the highway of life in a much more relieved state of mind. You owe it to them as your loved ones.

Don't delay . . . insure today.

IT'S PRESERVING TIME

Simple recipes given on this page will fill abundantly the cupboard shelves for the coming winter.

MRS. CRABTREE GIVES NEW, AS WELL AS OLD, RECIPES FOR PRESERVES

Dear Friends:

Preserving time has arrived. I hope you will try some of the newer recipes this year as well as the old "tried and true" ones.

Preserving and Christmas seasons seem quite remote but how closely they can be allied, if you would be the thoughtful friend to business women and apartment house dwellers. Last year I gave a number of my friends a bouquet of jams and jellies. During the summer season, the fruits and pickles were packed into small, squatty jars. If the jelly was grape, the tin top was painted purple and a bunch of grapes was pasted thereon with shellac. The pictures for all fruits and pickles were cut from magazines. By pasting the picture on with shellac, then brushing over the top as well, the paper is made waterproof and will last indefinitely. The small jars were finally placed in a cardboard cone-shaped bouquet that held them in place. Around each top was frilled a lace paper doilie and colored cellophane combination. The outside edge of the bouquet also carried a paper frill. So much for giving!

Home-made pickles and preserves seem to bring home atmosphere to any table. Their perfection is possible because at home one can make jellies and the other delicacies in small quantities. Making in small lots, using well-ripened, yet solid fruit, and care in packing are a few of the secrets for preserving fruits that will creditably adorn your pantry shelves or table.

Whole Strawberry Preserves

One quart of strawberries, two and one-half cups sugar and two cups of water.

Gently boil the sugar and water together for 15 minutes. Wash, then hull the strawberries, picking out the largest and most perfect ones. Set aside the small and bruised ones for marmalade or jam and measure only the selected berries. Add the berries to the syrup and boil eight minutes and no longer. Remove the berries with a skimmer or slit spoon and place on a platter. Continue cooking the syrup for 10 to 15 minutes or until it is thick. Pour over the berries while hot. Allow to stand 24 hours before packing in jars. By this method the berries absorb the syrup, remain plump, and never settle to the bottom of the jar. These preserves are delicious with ice cream.

Strawberry and Pineapple Jam

Pare and core a fresh pineapple. Put through the food grinder, using the coarse blade. Be sure to catch all the juice. Use equal parts of pineapple pulp and strawberries. To every six cups of fruit use five cups of sugar. Mix well and let stand for several hours or until the sugar is thoroughly dissolved. Cook slowly in a heavy preserving kettle until clear and thick. Pour into sterilized jars and seal. This jam has a beautiful color and tangy flavor.

Spiced Figs

Four pounds of fresh figs, two pounds of sugar, three-fourths cup vinegar, three cups water, one tablespoon whole allspice, one tablespoon whole cloves.

Peel the figs, trimming closely around the stems. Wash quickly and dry on an absorbent paper. Mix in a preserving kettle, the sugar, vinegar and water, and dissolve over low heat. Place the spices in a muslin bag and add to syrup. Add figs and cook at a moderate rate until the figs are transparent and tender. This takes about three hours. Pack in sterilized jars and seal.

Blackberry Jelly

(With Pectin)

Three quarts of berries or sufficient to give four cups of juice, eight cups of sugar and one-half cup liquid pectin.

Wash the berries and crush with a masher. Squeeze through a jelly bag to extract the juice. Mix the fruit juice and sugar. Stir and place on a low heat until sugar is dissolved. Bring mixture rapidly to the boiling point, add liquid pectin and boil hard for two minutes. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal at once with paraffin.

Apple and Blueberry Butter

One quart of apples, one quart of blueberries and three pounds of sugar.

Wash and core apples, cut into quarters. Add water to cover and cook slowly until soft. Strain and measure quantities of berries and apples. Add the same amount of sugar and cook slowly until thick. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal with paraffin.

Tomato Minicmeat

Eight quarts of green tomatoes, two lemons, four pounds of brown sugar, two pounds seeded raisins, one tablespoon salt, two teaspoons cloves, one teaspoon allspice, one tablespoon cinnamon, one teaspoon ginger, one-half teaspoon mace, one cup vinegar.

Scald and peel the tomatoes. Put through a food chopper using a coarse blade, with the lemons. Add sugar, raisins, vinegar, and spices. Bring to a boil and cook slowly for an hour. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

E. J. Crabtree

—RECIPES—

To Grease a Cake Pan

Cake pans should be greased evenly. A mixture of one-half cup of shortening, and one-fourth cup flour is better than first greasing the pan, then flouring. By using the mixture, there are never any flour spots on the bottom of the cake.

Peel Oranges Easily

Place oranges or grapefruit in hot water for five minutes. The fruit may then be peeled without any of the membrane clinging to the fruit pulp.

Dishwashing Made Easier

Use paper baking cups inside your muffin tins to save time and dishwashing of an ordinarily tedious job.

Trenton avenue. A suggested 10-foot raise has been discarded, and this has been considerably lowered to eliminate property damage which would have been caused as a result.

Work on Trenton avenue from Pennsylvania avenue to Lincoln Point is also expected to get under way shortly. A 2-inch top coating of amesite is planned on this stretch. It has also been reported that a 2-inch top of amesite will be placed on the River Road between the Morrisville borough line and Yardley.

Question as to whether the work planned will be done by private contractor or by the State is not definite as yet. Residents of the section are making an effort to have the work done by the latter in order that residents of the section may find employment.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

BEEF and broiling chickens are the flesh foods of the week, the former being the best meat value and broilers now at the height of their season. Good quality lamb and veal are very high though poorer grades are plentiful and cheap. Eggs are much higher, cheese is up and higher prices for butter are expected.

Fruits are plentiful and comparatively cheap. The berry season is about over having been shortened by heat and dry weather. Cantaloupes, peaches, pears and plums are outstanding with apples and bananas also reasonable. Lemons follow the thermometer and oranges are not cheap.

Vegetables are none too plentiful or good. Western lettuce and peas, potatoes and tomatoes are the best values. Cabbage, beets, carrots and onions are, as at most seasons, plentiful and reasonable in price.

Here are three menus planned for different budget levels.

WARNING!

Beware of counterfeit Delco-Remy ignition replacement parts which are now being offered to the trade at cut prices.

These parts are clever imitations of the genuine article. The trademark stamped upon them is almost identical with the Delco-Remy trademark. They are packed in tin-capped boxes bearing a cleverly forged label of the copyrighted design.

Although the materials and workmanship in these fake parts are very poor, it is difficult to detect these counterfeits by a casual examination.

You can safeguard your customers and your own business by refusing to buy any alleged Delco-Remy parts which are offered to you at cut prices.

You can make certain that you are getting genuine Delco-Remy parts by buying your supply from authorized United Motors Service dealers, exclusive Delco-Remy distributors.

Don't purchase any Delco-Remy parts from unknown sources. Help legitimate suppliers and dealers to stamp out these counterfeits by reporting any such offers made to you, directly to us or to any United Motors Service branch.

GREEN BOWS TO KRAMER
IN TWO STRAIGHT SETS

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 6—With two straight sets ending at 6-3, 6-3, Steve Kramer, Villa Park, defeated Nelson Green, Bristol, city title holder, Tuesday night, before a large crowd at the Cadwalader Park courts.

The left-handed Kramer was most convincing with the racquet, and easily won over Green. Kramer placed the Bristol player on the defensive, and played like a seasoned veteran. His recoveries were sensational to say the least.

The Bristol netman was puzzled greatly by Kramer's portside volleys, nor could he handle Steve's steamy, but deceptive service.

Kramer was off with a rush and, before Green could get his shots working, rolled up a 4-2 lead. Then with the score at 4-15, the former Villanova captain whistled an ace past Green to take a commanding 5-2 lead.

The titleholder managed to take his own service, only to lose the deciding game of the first set. A straight shot that topped the net and popped into Green's court as he stood awaiting the return ended the initial set.

The large gallery that gathered to see the match waited anxiously for Green to open up in the second set and blast Kramer off the courts, but that situation never developed. The games followed service until the pair stood even at 3-all, whereupon the challenger unleashed a barrage of swift and accurate placements that left Green floundering.

It was a grand victory for Kramer and stamped him as the man to beat.

Three other racquet wielders entered the semi-final round, but Herb Lawrence, of Bristol, last year's finalist, displayed probably the best form of the trio. He eliminated Earl Ballard, 6-2, 6-2, completely outclassing his foe with a polished assortment of strokes.

Frank Blank and Bill Collier, of Bordentown, battled three sets, with the former walking off with the honors after a stiff fight. It was a battle of placements, with Collier doing most of the running. The scores were 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Jim might have given Boyd a much harder battle, but was unfortunate to take a tumble early in the first set. He aggravated a knee injury in the fall, and immediately lost his effectiveness. The pair was playing practically on even terms when the mishap occurred.

Tonight Kramer will meet Blank in one semi-final, while Boyd encounters Lawrence in the other. The finals will be played on Saturday.

The results last night:

Quarter-Final Round

Steve Kramer defeated Nelson Green, 6-3, 6-3.

Frank Blank defeated Bill Collier, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Herb Lawrence defeated Earl Ballard, 6-2, 6-2.

Bob Boyd defeated Jim Waldron, 6-3, 6-1.

Tonight

Semi-Final Round

Herb Lawrence vs Bob Boyd.

CASTOR KNOCKS OUT
ROBINSON IN 1ST ROUND

HADDON HEIGHTS, N. J., Aug. 6—Chester Castor, Bristol 112 lb. champion, fighting under the colors of the Daggert A. C., knocked out Joseph Robinson, Batesville A. C., in the first round of the star bout in an inter-city card held here last night. Castor made short work of his opponent by dropping him with a left hook to the jaw and a right to the stomach for the full count.

The Daggert Club, which is sponsored by Charley Daggert, made up one side of the card, and all came out with flying colors. Joseph Donnelly, Daggert A. C., defeated Thomas Murphy of the Ken A. C., in the first bout. Joseph Didati, Daggert, defeated Mathew Parker in 5 rounds. John DeAngelo, Daggert, defeated Paul Swope in a whirlwind battle that had the crowd in an uproar throughout. In the best bout of the evening, Charley Shea, Daggert Club, decisioned Mathew Streeter, Batesville A. C., in 5 torrid rounds that bristled with action throughout. This bout caught the fancy of the large crowd and had them rooting their utmost first for one and then for the other.

In another bout, Charles McCloud, Daggert, defeated Robert Still in a close battle. The club made such a good showing with the action that they supplied, that it was offered another date immediately for next week's fights.

Castor, Shea and DeAngelo are slated to appear there next week.

POSTPONE AUTO RACES
BOOKED FOR LANGHORNE

LANGHORNE, Aug. 6—The next automobile racing meet on the famed Langhorne Speedway's mile circular track, originally scheduled for Sunday, August 9, has been postponed until October, the date of which will be announced in the near future by Promoter Ralph A. Hankinson.

The decision to hold the meet later in the season was reached on July 12 when Hankinson decided the heat would detract interest from the program.

Selection of a later date, however, has been withheld due to road repairs on the Lincoln Highway. Hankinson will reveal his plans upon learning when the work will be completed.

Preceding the auto race meet will be the National Championship 100-mile motorcycle event at Langhorne on Sunday, September 20.

Of the vast field entered, 50 will be eligible to compete in the feature, the only national motorcycle championship to be held this year.

Stars from every section of the country, handling the best imported and domestic powered wheelers, will engage in a program that will consist of three qualifying heats and a 100-mile final.

Hankinson predicts the champion will set a new speed record, pointing out the fact that Langhorne's is the fastest mile circular track in the world.

BURLINGTON NINE ADDS
BUCKS SCHOOLS TO FOES

BURLINGTON, Aug. 6—Two Bucks county high schools, Morrisville and Langhorne, have been added to the nine-game football schedule of the Burlington, N. J., team this year.

With eight veterans returning this fall, Burlington's coach, Alfred T. Rundle, predicts a brighter year for the Jerseyites. Although the team is expected to be light, special attention to the backs is planned to care for this.

Langhorne will be met in the first game at Burlington on September 26. Bristol high school, an old rival, is again on the schedule and the other six matches are all with county rivals.

At the initial practice, which is set for September 8, the Burlington coach said that fundamentals will be stressed. Besides the veterans returning, Coach Rundle also has a strong junior varsity and freshmen eleven to choose from in his molding of the varsity.

Due to a trick knee, Captain-Elect Ed. Chiemiengo may not be able to perform up to expectations, but it is expected that he will see plenty of action. Last year's sensational colored freshman halfback, Ben Brown, is expected to aid materially on the varsity. He already has the reputation of being one of the fastest men on the squad.

Other lettermen returning, besides Brown and Chiemiengo, include: Charles Arenz and Blair Budd, halfbacks; fullback Babe Pedroza; John Tarasevich, end; Joe Martin, guard; and Frank Gilbert, tackle. Gilbert is also one of the outstanding track men at Burlington High.

A number of prospects will aid in filling in the vacancies caused by the graduation of last year's regulars, including: Captain Joe Behot, George Shull, Dave Oliver, Carlton Cook and Ed Leonard.

The 1936 schedule follows:
September 26—Langhorne, home.
October 3—B. M. I., away.
October 10—Morrisville, away.
October 17—Moorestown, away.
October 24—Palmyra, away.
October 31—Mt. Holly, home.
November 7—Riverside, home.
November 14—Bristol, home.
November 25—Bordentown, away.

bank notes against bonds or notes of the government received for cash lent by the banks to make up the deficit.

Undoubtedly we are in a new inflation period, but between 1865 and 1879 a large part of the national debt was paid and in this new period of inflation the national debt increases each year by several billions of dollars.

A great reserve of gold in the government vaults is no sure protection against the calamities produced by inflation. Even ten billions of dollars in gold reserve is inadequate to support about forty-six billions of paper and silver dollars now in circulation, and the condition grows worse as fresh issues of paper money are made when the treasury issues more notes to meet deficits. This method of finance is like that of Mr. Micawber who gave his note for a bill that he owed and said "Thank God, that bill is paid."

The only way to save our government from continuing the policy of inflation to a degree that inevitably brings disaster is to stop lavish and wasteful expenditure and balance the budget.

After our Civil War it took fourteen years to get back to the gold standard, ending the period of inflation. The recovery was accomplished by our government spending less than its income and reducing the national debt. The government did not then resort to "clipping the coin" by declaring a reduction of 41 per cent in the gold value of the dollar, but met its obligations by honorable and judicious methods. Courage and intelligence rather than political expediency are needed to save the nation from severe inflation that is a serious menace under present financial policies of our government.
